

THE WINTERS ADVOCATE.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1876.

National Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT,
Samuel J. Tilden,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
Thos. A. Hendricks,
OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,
R. M. TAYLOR, JOSEPH BUD
PARCAY HENLEY, FRANK GUINA L.
J. G. SEBORG, J. S. HAGER.

FOR CONGRESSMAN,
(Third District)
J. H. LUTHER,
OF KNOX COUNTY.

A Mississippi carpet bagger has a suit on his hands. It is a suit of clothes and he is charged with stealing it.

The Radicals show that they are a good deal more tickled with the South Carolina riot than if it had never happened.

The Ralls County, Mo. Record says the speeches in that section are like Hayes and Wheeler this year—rather warm.

Gov. Hayes says he is in the hands of his friends. That can't be, for his friends have their hands up to the elbows in the public crib, generally speaking.

The nomination of Tilden has been received with great enthusiasm in Texas, which promises a majority of 100,000 for the reform ticket in November.

The Germans of the United States are walking straight along in the Tilden and reform column. Carl Schurz has a whole bed to himself in the Hayes shambles and complains of being very lonely.

In Cleveland, Ohio, four hundred German citizens, heretofore voting the Republican ticket, have published a card declaring squarely and unequivocally for Tilden and Hendricks. That is exactly the way the tide of sentiment is drifting.

Doctor Bloet, a leading Republican of Brooklyn, N. Y., repudiates Carl Schurz, and says, "the honest bulk of the Germans, true to their inborn love of liberty and reform and their hatred of scoundrelism of all kinds will join the reform ranks of Tilden."

Tom Nast, says the Glasgow, Ky. Times, ought to get up a caricature. Bristow ought to beat one end of a whiskey barrel poking the thieves in at a spite hole, and Grant at the other, pulling Rabcock out at a bung hole and yelling, "Let no guilty man escape—I'll attend to that."

And next comes the New York Evening Post (Radical), with this endorsement: "Gov. Tilden's letter of acceptance is an able and careful document, showing that familiarity with his subject, which comes of patient study and long experience. The ends which Gov. Tilden keeps in view will be everywhere agreed to."

The manager of the Co-operative Credit Bank of London, convicted on a charge of fraud, has been sentenced to five years penal servitude. The managers of the fraudulent Freedman's Bank at Washington are at liberty and considered as very pious, clever fellows. John Bull has evidently something to learn from "the best government the sun ever shone on."

The Louisville Commercial, (Radical), puts this stunning circumlocution: "If a bath in a horse-pond is a good way of silencing Republicans in Indiana, why not in Kentucky?" The Glasgow, Ky. Times, solves the circumlocution thusly: "Because if they are like the editor of the Commercial we couldn't get the stock to use the water any more."

How is it that all the Republican papers of New York city and State are honest enough to bear testimony to the great and useful services of Governor Tilden, and to the further facts of his sincerity, honesty and ability? And yet the wooden pop-gun of the party in Woodland thinks him a most desperate character and nothing honest in his composition.

Thurlof Weed, Radical, in his letter to the Albany Evening Journal, has nothing better to offer for the guidance of his party than that it shall try to shake off all responsibility for the crimes and corruptions of the Administration, "a burthen" he says "under the weight of which no Administration can stand," and that it shall flaunt the bloody shirt instead. But the party don't "shake off" a word a cent.

The latest additions to the Tilden and Hendricks ranks, are Robert Lincoln, son of the late President Lincoln, and F. A. Conkling, brother to Conkling, the Radical pet of Grant, and then comes William H. Herndon, of Springfield, Illinois, who for twenty-five years was Lincoln's boom friend and law-partner, and says he shall do everything in his power to elect the Democratic ticket this fall.

The main points in Mr. Tilden's letter of acceptance are thus summed up by the New York Tribune, (Radical): "His main points are reform in public expenditure, the condition of the South, resumption, and civil service reform. It would be idle to deny, that on these points, his positions are for the most part, strongly and ably sustained. His remarks on the necessity of all the reforms referred to, will meet universal approval."

LOOK ON THIS PICTURE.

At the close of his speech on the Bull-bait for impeachment question, George F. Hoar, Radical member of Congress, uttered the following telling indictment against the corruption and mal-administration of his own party:

"My own public life has been a brief and insignificant one, extending little beyond the duration of a single term (six years) of Senatorial office, but in that brief period, I have seen five Judges of a high Court of the United States driven from office by threats of impeachment for corruption and mal-administration. I have heard the taunts from friendly lips, that when the United States presented themselves in the East to take part with the civilized world in general competition in the arts of life, the only product of her institutions in which she surpassed all others beyond question, was her corruption. I have seen, in the States of the Union foremost in power and wealth four Judges of her Courts impeached for corruption, the political administration of her chief city become a disgrace and a by-word throughout the world. I have seen the Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs in the House, now a distinguished member of this Court, rise in his place and demand the expulsion of four of his associates for making sale of their official privilege of selecting the youth to be educated at our great military school. When the greatest railroad of the world, binding together the continent and waiting the two great seas that wash our shores, was finished, I have seen our national triumph and exulting turned to bitterness and shame by the unanimous report of three Committees of Congress, two of the House and one here, that every step of that mighty enterprise had been taken in fraud. I have heard in highest places the shameful doctrine avowed by men grown old in public office that the true way by which power should be gained in the Republic is to bribe the people with office created for their service, and the true end for which it should be gained is the promotion of selfish ambition and the gratification of revenge. I have heard that corrupt leaders the trusted companions of the President. These things have passed into history."

NOW ON THIS.

On the 9th inst., this same George F. Hoar, the Congressional report of that day's proceedings, says, "took issue with Lamar's claim that there was a prevalent corruption or mal-administration in public affairs." And here is the ground on which he seeks to excuse his admitted corruption of his party administrations, as pictured out above:

"He (Hoar) believed the sixteen years in which the Republican party had had power had been free from corruption and mal-administration than the sixteen years which followed the inauguration of Washington."

In proof of the public corruption (the report goes on to say) during the administration of Washington, Adams and Jefferson, he cited four cases—all occurring during the administration of Washington!

Now what does the logic of Radical Hoar amount to in the above pictures, if not something like this: Our forefathers during the first sixteen years of the first century of our existence as a Republic, stole four dollars, therefore my party cannot be blamed for stealing forty millions of dollars in the last sixteen years of the century, but on the other hand ought to be retained in power another sixteen years, to enable us, as a party of progress, to steal on a still grander scale.

But let us contrast Mr. Radical Hoar and Mr. Democratic Tilden in the subject matter of the above pictures. Mr. Hoar finds excuse for the corruption existing in his party by going back nearly a hundred years and digging up four cases of corruption. Mr. Tilden found a Ring reeking with corruption existing in his party, and instead of hunting up an excuse, started in and never let up till the members of that Ring were held up to public execration and punished, and their leader became a fugitive and a lurking vagabond on the face of the earth. Here matters for reflection so plain that "the wayfarer man, though a fool, need not err therein."

The Democratic ticket is Tilden and Reform, not Tilden and Hendricks, as some have it. Reform is the tail of the ticket. Tilden for Tilden and Reform—Yolo Mail. You're "struck" at last, neighbor, but "for the sake of honesty and humanity" let us tell you a story that didn't happen in old Illinois. "A man," we read, once climbed an apple tree to pick some peaches to make a plum pudding for his dinner, but fell from one of the branches and brought up with his legs straddling the fence and nearly mashed his outside in. Take friendly advice, then, don't "climb too high," or your friends will be apt to think you have climbed the apple tree and are straddling the fence, or, like the great-to-be-hoed-out, have softening of the brain, etc., etc. Be careful, neighbor, remember your trip to the head-waters of Salt River is already beginning to loom up in the near future.

The superiority of man to nature is continually illustrated in literature and in life. Nature needs an immense quantity of quills to make a goose with; but a man can make a goose of himself in five minutes with one quill, as witness the following from the San Joaquin Argus:

A return to power of the Democracy means another war fiercer than the last; for it will be fought in every State in the Union. Bloodshed and destruction for awhile, and then a very radical Republican government that will quench the embers of secession and anarchy in the blood of the sympathizers legally, but mercilessly.

Reverend. The Solano Republican is expecting a visit to Suisun this Fall, from Rev. J. M. Brier, Jr., and thinks it would be a good idea, as they have a vacant Congregational church, to persuade him to stay. Having for some months attended his church in Grass Valley, Nevada county, we can assure our contemporary that if Mr. B. could be prevailed upon to locate in Suisun, he would be a valuable addition to the religious element of the town. We can fully endorse the Rev. gentleman as a man of deep thought, advanced ideas and a pleasant delivery.

Cumberland Presbyterian churches are increasing. One was completed at Plainville, on the 1st inst., and the contract for the erection of another at Merced was signed on the 4th inst.

Rev. F. Heine, who recently removed from Woodland, has organized a Free German Lutheran Church at Sacramento, with a membership of ninety at the commencement.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

A valuable chrome mine has been discovered at the head of Berryessa valley, and also rich deposits of iron ore.

A Tilden and Hendricks Club was organized at Sacramento on Saturday evening, with a membership of 200 to start in with. The yield of the California mine for the month of July was $1,043,199 in gold, and $1,019,173 in silver, $2,062,378 in all, the entire mass weighing 29½ tons!

The pyrodebellium is the simple name of a new projectile. What a fuss it would kick up if hurled into the ranks of a first grade spelling class.

The "Swap," is a new institution started in the Western States. Swaps, we are informed, are gatherings at which every man who attends agrees to swap or treat the crowd.

John F. Dreman, a School Director of Sacramento, has been indicted for petty larceny in converting to his own use a cord of wood belonging to the School Department.

A butler in the employ of Harvey Rice, Suisun, has been arrested for forging checks on the Suisun Bank.

The California Trotting Stallion Purty, recently won a race in Cleveland, Ohio, making his mile in 2:23½.

A German publisher has issued a work announcing the end of the world for August 28th, 1876.

A woman in Anderson county, Kentucky, gave birth to five children one day last week. Four of them are living and doing well. Think of that and weep, ye one-sters round here.

Helmbold went insane, and Dr. Ayer has become a lunatic. It is too much strain on a man's nerve tissues trying to cure everything for a dollar.

The first camp meeting of the season is to be held at Knight's Valley, Napa county, commencing on the 26th inst.

A Mexican, mining near Shasta, picked up, a few days ago, a chunk of gold that weighed thirteen pounds and worth $2500.

The recent elections in Alabama and Kentucky were like the handle of a jug, all at one side, Democratic.

The banking firm of Jay Cooke & Co., have gone through bankruptcy, their creditors making no objection. So goes another million and a half of public money. Jay is now qualified for a foreign mission under Grant.

An hotel in Kansas has the following notice displayed in the bedroom: "Gentlemen wishing to commit suicide will please take the centre of the room, to avoid staining the bed linen, walls, and furniture with blood."

It is estimated there are 700,000 grains of wheat in a bushel. There are 6,272,406 square inches in an acre. Using one bushel of seed per acre there would be about one seed to each 9¼ square inches.

Congress has adjourned, and members are returning to their homes to prepare for the Presidential campaign. Look out for stump orators about these days—ninety of the Radical stamp being expected on the Pacific coast.

A curiosity sent to Philadelphia, is a section of a white oak tree, from one side of which projects several inches of the antlers of a deer. The appearance and age of the wood indicates that 50 or 60 years ago a young buck prancing about the forests of Oregon became entangled in the fork of the tree and perished, and in the course of time the fork and trunk grew together, leaving only the ends of the antlers exposed.

A vessel, arrived at San Francisco on Tuesday last, reports having taken from the wreck of a Japanese junk, which had been drifting about the ocean nine months, two of the crew still alive. As the rest of the crew died they were salted down in the hold by the survivors.

A PLAIN PROPOSITION TO EASY-MINDED DEBATORS.—Harper's Magazine is responsible, we believe, for the following highly original dinn, which an Indiana Lumber dealer addressed to his creditors. We trust that our representatives of the same business have no cause to go thusly for their patrons, notwithstanding the present price of wheat.

My Dear Sir: I want to ask you a plain question in all kindness and sincerity, and I would like to have you answer it honestly and candidly; not in two or three years or months, but now this week. Supposing you were as poor as Job's turkey and had received $2000 or $3000 in an enterprise which you desired to make an exclusively cash business; supposing, as a matter of accommodation and good nature, you had trusted it out all over the country, from h—l to Jericho; supposing you had kept adding your means and still putting it in the books, for a few days, until your funds were played out like old Fort's property; supposing you had claims coming against you in the hands of business men who had accommodated you in good faith and needed their money; supposing you had some pride in you and meant to be square-toed and punctual, and had to see a man whom you owed when you didn't have the light-tender in your trousers to pay his just and lawful demands; would you then to see an Indian or the devil, and supposing those whom you had accommodated felt perfectly easy and contented, shield the track when you went to see them, and told the wife of their bosom to answer "not at home," or came into town and left without even paying a part; supposing they held your money and waited patiently for wheat to come up to ninety cents or a dollar, or pork to bring five or six dollars a hundred, what would you do? Would you let your debtors go and smile and be a villain, or would you sue every mother son of that didn't pay, if it was the last thing you transacted in town? If you were an honest man you'd do the latter, and that's just what I'll be compelled to do if the Lord is God or there is a king in Israel. I don't want money to look at; I can earn enough for that; don't want any to salt down in the bank; I want it to keep; but out of several thousands trusted out I humbly want a few hundreds, and I'll be—If I won't have it or an execution returned on it, I love you myself as a mother loves her first-born, but I love to pay my debts better than I love any man, woman or child on the face of God Almighty's green earth, and by the Great Jehovah and the Continental Congress I propose to do it, if I have to make a trip for every cent for every cent of the county, at the shortest notice. The Chicago Times says, there is a mingling town out West called "No-where." That's where a man has always been when his wife lets him in at two o'clock in the morning!

For the sake of honesty and humanity, we hope the report (Hendricks' withdrawal from the nomination) may prove untrue.—Yolo Mail.

"Hope deferred maketh the heart sick," therefore your "hope for the sake of honesty and humanity" shall be swallowed up in full fruition at the earliest possible moment. Possess your soul in patience, take an occasional dose of Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup, and the Idea of November, will find you, in the procession up Salt River, assuming the role of "Patience on a monument smiling at grief."

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CHURCH MATTERS.—Rev. W. M. Tubb, of San Ramon Valley, Contra Costa county, has been holding evening services in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church during the week. Mr. Tubb was announced for Monday evening, but a capsize of his buggy by the way prevented his putting in an appearance in season. There will be services in the church to-morrow.

We learn that an arrangement is in progress for the purchase of a half interest in the Methodist Episcopal Church South by the Campbellites. As the church is not occupied more than half the time by the Methodists, we think such an arrangement would meet the approbation of the members of both denominations. There will be services in the church to-morrow.

Mr. London, builder of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this town, we learn has taken the contract for the completion of a Baptist Church at Dixon.

Rev. Mr. Tubb, being an artist, as well as a preacher of the Gospel, will undertake the frescoing the interior of the new church. This, in addition to stained windows will add greatly to the beauty of the interior of the edifice. The above in rear of the desk will present a scene representing the birth of Christ, the annunciation to the shepherds "abiding in the fields," the multitude of the Heavenly Host, the Star in the East, and the worship of the wise men.

To Correspondents.—Thanks to friend Howard, of Howard Springs, Lake county, for favors. Will be pleased to hear from your health-giving locality occasionally.

We find on our table a few verses from a young lady in a neighboring town, introduced as follows: "While sitting in my room waiting till my eyelids would get heavy and I could get to good order to sleep, I composed the following verses, which please publish." The subject is suggestive—a spell of meditation over that curiously constructed animal Man, will not act as an opiate and send you to sleep? If the shadow has this effect, what effect would the substance be likely to have? But hear our young friend:

Man! what a piece of work is man! He rises in the morning full of health And vigor, and journeys through life's Uplifted path. Had not man sinned In Eden's pleasant garden, Happy would have been the human race, Etc., etc.

Now, fair young friend, don't put all the sin on the man. Who first sinned and then coaxed him to sin? Before your eyelids get heavy again please figure out that conundrum, and let us hear from you again.

ROMANCES.—On Monday evening last the room of J. A. Brown, proprietor of the Winters livery stable, was entered and robbed of $7.50 in coin, and a knife. Mr. B. is willing the thief may retain the coin, if he returns the knife.

Earlier on the same day a trunk belonging to the editor of this paper was broken open and robbed of a watch, which he was fortunate enough to recover, the thief having left it at the jeweler's for repair.

On Tuesday Mr. Hall, one of the clerks in the house of Blum & Co., had a valuable ring stolen from him. Mr. H. laid the ring on the stand while washing his hands and being called off for a few minutes, on returning found the ring had been stolen in his absence.

SHIPMENTS.—The amount of wheat shipped from Winters over the Y. V. R. R. from June 28th; to August 18th, footed up 3,900 tons, the number of bushels being 130,000 and the weight 7,800,000 pounds. The warehouses are about full of wheat on storage and it is piled up five sacks high and four wide on each side of the railroad for the space of 300 yards. The gap made by the shipment of eight or ten car loads daily is rapidly filled up by incoming teams. Of fruit the shipments have been three car loads a week, and from Yacoville three car loads daily.

A sale of a small lot of wheat was made last week, at $1.37 1/2, but we learn from holders that $1.35 is the offering rate at present.

GRAND BALL.—Mr. Pescoch, the genial host of the Monticello Hotel gives notice that he will give a grand ball, on the evening of the 4th proximo, the eve of the Race alluded to elsewhere. "These of our young ladies and gents, who take pleasure in 'tripping it on the light fantastic toe,' can thus have the pleasure of an excursion superadded to which the pleasure of dancing and a luxurious supper gotten up in Pescoch's best style, and everybody and the rest of mankind, hark! hark! know how this genial landlord can do up such things.

FAILED TO PAY.—On Saturday and Monday evenings, Miss Louise Irving and Herr Nielson gave concerts at Sackett's Hall. The performances were very pleasing to those who attended, but not so very pleasing to the performers, who scarcely more than realized sufficient to pay hall rent. From some cause unknown to us at present, generally speaking, fail to draw houses in Winters.

GOLDEN ERA.—Adam Magee, travelling agent for the Golden Era, visited our sanatorium on Saturday last. Adam is a regular rascal and one of those "cheating rogues" who could almost persuade a hickory log to hand out maple syrup. In his present role he is a valuable auxiliary to the best literary paper on the Pacific Coast.

MONTICELLO RACE.—The Berryessa Jockey Club, give notice in another column of this paper, that a Sweepstake Race will come off at Monticello on the 5th of September. For particulars refer to notice.

WOODLAND ITEMS.—Judge Denson will commence the next session of the District Court on the 8th of September.

JONES' PACIFIC BAND. of Woodland, have just received their new instruments direct from New York. The members of this band are all citizens and business men of Woodland, and it is their intention to supply themselves with a uniform. The band consists of 20 members, and will soon be ready for engagements.

In the County Jail there are six prisoners awaiting the action of the Grand Jury, and in the Sheriff's office, conspicuous among the portraits are those of Hayes and Wheeler, but no reward offered.

THE CASE OF ROBERTS.—Linn Roberts, recently one of the proprietors of the Occidental Hotel, sold out that establishment and also sold his saloon. A day or so afterwards he went to Davisville, where he was arrested, as we hear, at the instance of a liquor firm in Sacramento, on a charge of attempting to leave the State to defraud his creditors, and committed to the county jail at Woodland, where he still remains. We learn from Woodland that Roberts is about commencing an action for damages, on the ground of false imprisonment, against the parties causing his arrest.

TILDEN AND HENDRICKS CLUB.—Last Saturday night, pursuant to a call, a meeting was held in the City Hall, Woodland, and the initiatory steps taken towards organizing a Tilden and Hendricks Reform Club. The Hon. Wm. Sanders, was chosen temporary Chairman, and A. G. Read, Secretary. The usual committees were appointed and the meeting adjourned to meet at Central Hall, this, Saturday evening, August 19th, when all persons opposed to the corrupt practices of the present administration and in favor of reform in the National government, are cordially invited to attend. Prominent speakers will be present and a permanent organization effected.

ACCIDENTS.—On Monday night last T. J. Babb, engineer on the Y. V. R. R., met with a severe injury. He was in the act of screwing up a nut on a bolt when the monkey wrench slipped off the nut and brought his hand in violent contact with the link. His hand presents a bad appearance and it is feared erysipelas may set in.

On Wednesday, Mr. Morales, boss of a gang men loading a pilfered car with wheat had three fingers badly mashed up and hand bruised, while engaged in coupling cars. Dr. Ball attended the case, and hopes amputation of any of the fingers will not be rendered necessary.

MELON STEAL.—We are now in a position to answer the query of a subscriber in a former number of this paper, as to the location of a company formed for extracting sugar from watermelons. The location of the company is at Inleton, on Andrus Island, at the junction of Jackson Slough and that branch of the Sacramento known as the Old River, about 6 miles above Rio Vista. The capital of the company is $500,000 in shares of $100 each, and the erection of the works commenced on the 1st inst. We are indebted to the Solano Republican for the above information.

INSTALLATION.—At a regular meeting of Winters Lodge, No. 183, I. O. of G. T., held August 11th, the following were installed as officers for the term: Wm. Sines, W. C. T. T. Mrs. L. A. Sines, W. Y. T. Miss Fannie Maxwell, W. T. P. Allen, W. F. S.; E. Maxwell, W. M.; Hall Allison, W. I. G.; Wm. Sines, W. O. G.; Wm. Craig, W. C.; M. Maxwell, D. M.; Edward Ferguson, P. W. C. T.; Miss Nellie Brown, W. R. H. S.; Miss Myra Stevens, W. L. H. S.

GONE.—Miss Lizzie Baker, daughter of Hon. William Baker, of Solano county, has gone from our gaze for a season, to become a student in the Perry Seminary at Sacramento, one of the best educational institutions in the State. Her many friends in Winters miss her from their social circle, and regret the interval that must necessarily elapse before meeting with their amiable friend again.

THE RACES.—The Winters correspondent of the Yolo Democrat has a contemptible thing at the recent Yolo and Solano Jockey Club races. As the members of this Club are among the most respectable and honorable citizens of this and the adjoining county, the violence of the correspondent's remarks and the contempt of all the friends of the gentlemen alluded to.

SANDREY.—J. R. Edmonds, of Woodland, dealer in all that appertains to the saddlery business, has in his store a large and varied assortment of articles in his line, of his own and imported manufacture, which he disposes of at living rates. See advertisement in another column, and if you wish to be well suited give him a call.

HINT TO TRAVELLERS.—Travellers on the Central Pacific Railroad are notified that the office in Sacramento that silver will not be taken in payment for railroad fares. A lady from this town was put to serious inconvenience, on Tuesday last, and came very near losing her passage to the mountains, from not being aware of the fact.

CONNECTION.—We were in error last week in stating that J. C. Lemmon was agent for the sale of lager beer from several breweries. Mr. L. is simply hired to deliver the beer in his capacity of drayman.

SMALL POX.—A letter received at this office from a lady in Grass Valley, Nevada county, says the small pox is prevailing to some extent in that town.

Fisher and Brown are going on a trip to Woodland to-day.

Dr. W. C. Harding, Dentist, will be at Solano, 21st to 26th August. Winters, 28th Aug. to 2nd Sept. Suisun, 4th to 9th Sept. Vacay lie, 11th to 15th September. Suisun, 18th to 23rd September. Address all communications to office at Suisun.

DRYUS & SPAULDING.—This is the name of a new firm at Winters which takes the place of Ely & Henry, having bought out their stock of family groceries, etc. We can speak for Mr. Dryus as being a square, prompt business man, and see by the Advocate that Mr. Spaulding "is well known as an accommodating young gentleman."—Yolo Democrat.
